Do you have a client who is in the process of buying a home and needs expert home entertainment advice? Jerry's Audio/Video can offer a free low voltage inspection to you, as a Realtor, which you can pass along to your client. After the offer is written on a home, during the 10 day inspection period, Jerry's will come out to the home and perform a low voltage inspection of either the existing wiring, existing equipment, or the possibility of future plans with the new home owner. Jerry's will provide a detailed proposal of what is needed to either maintain the existing system or make recommendations for new products.

Since 1970, Jerry's Audio /Video has provided their clients with the finest product offerings, timely installation and exceptional service. Our passion for the ultimate home entertainment experience allows us to continue providing quality systems that are simple to use and provide years of enjoyment.

Jerry's Audio/Video specializes in Home Theater, 4K UHD TV, Hi-Fi Audio, Whole House Music Systems, Home Automation, Surveillance, Lighting Control, Motorized Window Shades, Outdoor Living Spaces, Home Networking, and Security. Make Jerry's Audio/Video the trusted experts that you recommend to your clients.

If your client is purchasing a home and you find a bundle of intimidating wires call Jerry's Audio/Video to schedule your low voltage home inspection. Jerry's Audio/Video will provide a system proposal, detailing all of the options for your client.

Whether you are the listing agent or the buyer's Realtor, Jerry's Audio/Video can help you and your clients.
